Executive Summary

The Government Accountability Institute (GAI) conducted an analysis of the Presidential Schedule, as released by the White House, to determine the number of times President Barack Obama has met directly with his Cabinet secretaries. To provide more comprehensive coverage, GAI used the official White House calendar¹ and Politico Presidential calendar² as our primary sources. The study reviewed all dates after the signing of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (“Affordable Care Act”) on March 23, 2010 through November 30, 2013 (1,348 days).

Key Findings:

- The White House Cabinet is comprised of 23 individuals including the Vice President, the secretaries from all 15 departments, and 7 other individuals given “Cabinet-rank,” including the White House Chief of Staff³
- Since the signing of the Affordable Care Act on March 23, 2010, President Obama has met with various Cabinet secretaries a total of 277 times
- According to the White House schedule, the President met with secretaries from the Departments of Defense, State, and Treasury for 263 (95%) out of his 277 face-to-face meetings
- President Obama met with Secretaries Gates, Panetta, or Hagel from the Defense Department the most, totaling 100 total meetings

² “Politico 44: A Living Diary of The Obama Presidency,” Politico, accessed November 30, 2013, <http://www.politico.com/politico44/>

³ “The Cabinet,” The White House, accessed November 30, 2013, <http://www.whitehouse.gov/administration/cabinet>

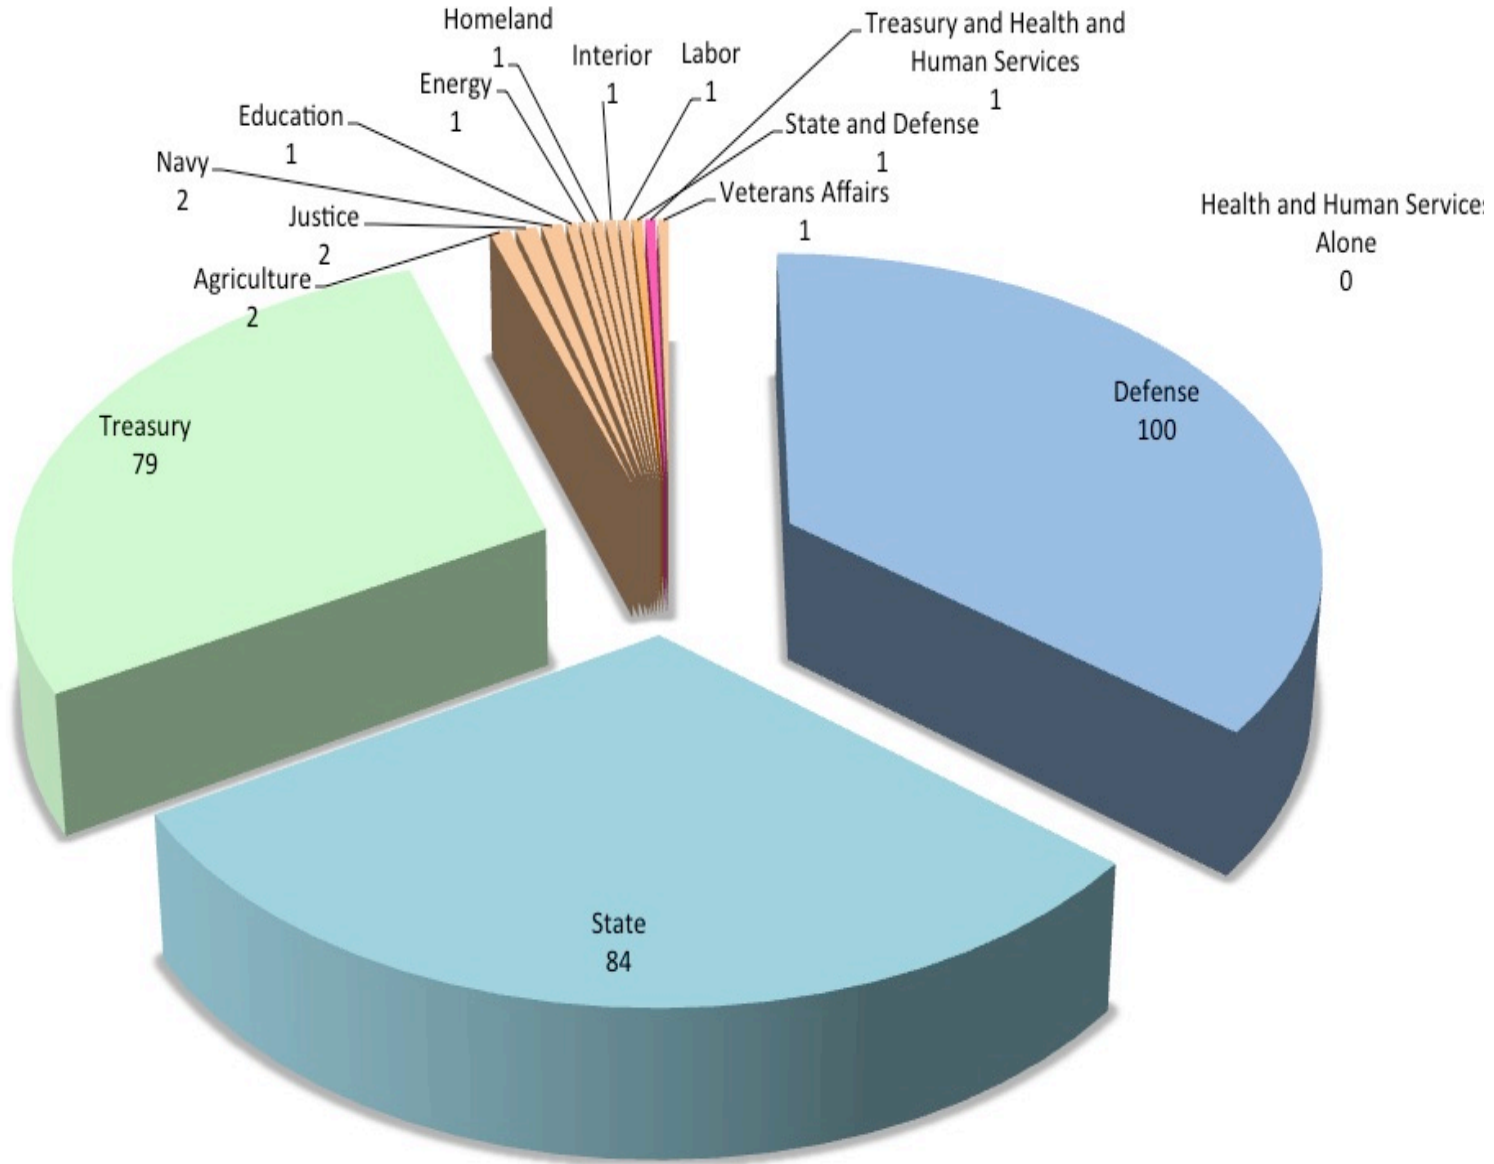

- President Obama met with Secretaries Clinton and Kerry from the State Department the second most times, totaling 84 face-to-face encounters
- President Obama met with Secretaries Geithner and Lew from the Treasury Department the third highest number of times, totaling 79 meetings
- The other 14 meetings are with the secretaries from the Departments of Agriculture, Education, Justice, Energy, Homeland Security, Interior, Labor, Health and Human Services, Veterans Affairs and included two meetings with the Secretary of the Navy Ray Mabus (not an official Cabinet level post)
- The Presidential schedule does not document a single one-on-one meeting with Secretary Kathleen Sebelius of the Department of Health and Human Services. However, there is one instance of Secretary Sebelius meeting jointly with the President and Secretary of the Treasury Timothy Geithner
- The charts below illustrate the meetings held with Cabinet Secretaries during the review period. The first chart shows number of meetings broken down by department and the second shows the number of meetings each Secretary attended

Number of Meetings with Cabinet Secretaries

Methodology

Assumptions:

- This report focuses solely on the meetings between President Barack Obama and his Cabinet secretaries. This report documents only meetings with the Cabinet secretaries from the departments of State, Treasury, Defense, Justice, Interior, Agriculture, Commerce, Labor, Health and Human Services, Housing and Urban Development, Transportation, Energy, Education, Veterans Affairs, and Homeland Security.
- This report excludes Cabinet-wide meetings and instead focuses on private meetings that appear on the White House calendar.
- Some instances with multiple meeting attendees are included in an effort to document as fairly as possible the amount of face time each secretary was afforded with the President. For example, on April 15th, 2010, President Obama met with Secretary Solis of the Labor Department and Mine Safety and Health Administrator Joe Main. And on April 16th 2011 the President participated “in a breakout session hosted by Secretary of Agriculture Tom Vilsack.” Any events that named a Cabinet Secretary directly, and also named fewer than five other attendees, were included, as they likely involved significant dialogue between President Obama and that Secretary.
- Calendar listings were typically worded as follows: “The President (and Vice President) Meets with Secretary of [Department][Secretary]”
- While there are numerous sources that document presidential activities (White House calendar, Politico calendar, Washington Post “Potus Tracker,” pool reports, other press corps, twitter etc.) the report is focused primarily on the meetings the White House chooses to publish in their own calendar. Since the Whitehouse calendar is unavailable prior to July 12, 2010, the Politico calendar was used for the period from March 23, 2010 to July 11, 2010 and to verify the White House calendar. Meetings that appear on the Politico calendar, but not the White House calendar were counted.
